

ADVOCATE

AUGUST 2006 ISSUE

CAALA honors state legislators

The CAALA Political Action Committee honored members of the state Senate and Assembly and winners of the June primary election at a special reception on June 22, 2006, at the Law Offices of Lisa Maki.

CAALA PAC Chairman Scott Corwin thanked CAALA members for their contributions to the PAC which provide financial assistance to pro-consumer candidates. Former CAALA President Thomas Stolpman made the evening special by providing wine from the Stolpman Vineyards.

CAALA PAC Chairman Scott Corwin (second from right) greeted special guests Mike Davis, a state Assembly nominee, former State Senator Charles Calderon and John Chiang, the Democratic nominee for State Controller.

PAC Chairman Corwin introduced Assemblywoman Judy Chu, a strong advocate for consumers in the legislature, to reception attendees.

CAALA members and special guests enjoyed great conversation and jazz at the reception sponsored by the CAALA Political Action Committee (PAC).

CAALA Board member Victor George (right) is joined by Assemblyman Lloyd Levine (center) and his chief of staff, Stuart Waldman.

CAALA First Vice President Amy Solomon greets her future state Assembly representative, Kevin DeLeon, a Democratic nominee for Assembly.